O True God, save us from all evils and wickedness, from all malicious and adulterous thoughts, from all enemies and deceitful companions, from temptations of the devil and the wickedness of men; from unholy passions and foul lust; from devilish thoughts and evil dreams, from hidden snares and betrayals, from idle and revengeful words, and from all worldly temptations.

From divine wrath and sudden death, from anger and hatred, from lightning and thunder, from plagues and hell-fire, from hard-hearted and wicked deeds, from undying worms and unquenchable fire, from the gnashing of teeth and lamentation, from unbearable consequences, from evil hours, tormenting powers, and all sudden afflictions, save us.

Save us also from famine and fears, from sudden shocks and all unbearable punishments, from your uttering, "Depart from me, I know you not" and from all that shall separate us from you. Amen.

Bless us, O God, that we may offer you with thankful hearts, acceptable praise and honor.

O God the Father, we praise you, for you are our Creator and Protector.

O God the Son, we praise you, for you are our Savior.

O Holy Spirit, we praise you, for you are the Sanctifier and the one who sustain us.

O Holy Trinity, we praise you, for revealing yourself to the Holy Catholic Church and for making us her children.

For bringing us to this life, we praise you.

For the good examples and wise teachings of your saints, we praise you.

For giving us the grace to know, love, and serve you, we praise you.

For all the blessings we received from you today, we praise you.
