Liturgical Prayers (to be by hearted)

Prayer of Thanksgiving after confession

Most Merciful God, I am unable to express thanks in proportion to the manifold blessings you have showered on me. Up to now, I was a slave of Satan because of my sins. But now I am your servant. By the intensity of my sin I deserved everlasting hell. But now I am made worthy for the heavenly bliss. Due to my sins, I was in the image of Satan. But now, by the fruit of the sacred blood of Jesus Christ, I am like the angels. I was bound by the chain of sin because of the enormity of my sins. But now, because of your special grace, I have become one of your loving sons/daughters.

O Good Father, I praise and adore you gratefully. I offer you my life in order to praise and glorify you. O Mother of God and all the saints and angels, pray for me. Amen.

Manito of Mor Severus of Antioch

“I will praise you, my Lord and King.” Only begotten Son and Word of the Heavenly Father, Who is immortal by nature. Christ, O God, you deigned to come down for the life and salvation of mankind. And were incarnate of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the pure Mother of God. Without change you became man and you were crucified for us. And by your death, you trampled on our death and destroyed it.

You are one of the most Holy Trinity, and are worshipped and glorified equally, with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Have mercy on us, O Lord.
